

International Conference on Climate Finance (ICCF) 2018 Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Registration & Presentation

Q. Is there any registration fee to attend the conference?

-There is no registration fee to attend the conference. However, participants need to register online as presenter or participant to attend the conference.

Q. Will the conference discuss climate change issues?

-The conference will exclusively focus on financing of climate change.

Q. Are there any requirements for the oral presentation (i.e. number of slides, time)?

-Each oral presentation will be for 15 minutes (including a Q & A session). Although, there is no restriction for the number of slides per presentation, presenters must strictly maintain the time limit.

Q. Can two authors present a paper?

-Yes, if selected, two presenters can present a paper. For international participants, funding will be provided to one presenter only.

Q. For papers with multiple authors, does each author need to register separately?

-No, one author has to register in order to submit the abstract. After receiving confirmation of selection, the authors can email the co-authors' details to the organisers. Only the registered author will be sponsored by the conference secretariat.

Q. Can anyone submit multiple abstracts?

-Yes, a presenter may submit up to two abstracts.

Q. How will the participants know about their selection?

-The Conference Coordination Team will notify the selected participants via email. Sponsored presenters will be notified by 07 December 2017 and self-funded presenters by 15 December 2017.

N.B.: Presenters will receive further instructions on presentations upon selection.

Funding

Q. Is there any funding available to attend the conference?

-Funding is only available to selected international presenters who will be presenting in the conference. Presenters will be selected by the selection committee based on the application submitted within the due date. Funding will not be provided to attend the conference without a presentation.

Q. What will be covered by the fund?

-The funds for the selected international participants will cover round trip air fare (economy class), accommodation and food for 26 January to 28 January 2018, and local travel (to and from hotel, conference venue and airport). Daily allowances will not be provided.

Travel

Q. Will the organizers arrange visa for the international participant?

-The organizer will only provide an invitation letter to the international participants. The participants will have to arrange their own visa before travelling to Bangladesh. We highly recommend getting the visa from own country or nearby consulate before travelling to Bangladesh. Please do not rely on 'visa on arrival'.
